

Freedom of the press is something that all should value in America. I think that by allowing one company to own radio stations, news papers, and television channels limits that freedom. The diversity of opinions, which is what a democracy is based on, will be dramatically lessened. I am pleading that you LEAVE IN PLACE the laws limiting ownership and cross-ownership of media outlets.